

CSPRA Meeting Minutes for July 14, 2017

1. Meeting brought to Order @ 10:00am
2. Minutes from April 29 meeting were reviewed. Approved
3. Business from Minutes – none
4. Team Roping Bids were reviewed. Tim Bevans - $1560 and Manerd Bird - $1000. Motion M. Bird's bid be accepted, carried.
5. Bud Clemons donated $500. to CSPRA. We will check with him and see if we can put this money towards our college scholarship funds.
6. Lifetime Memberships – discussed and tabled
7. Events with one contestant was discussed with several suggestions. Motion that we bring to AGM a motion that: Contestants in the age category directly above the “distressed event” may enter down. From these entries a draw will then be made for one contestant to compete in the “distressed event” in order to provide a completion. Carried.
8. Finals 2017 update given.
9. Motion that: “All practitioners attending our Finals pay a $25 vendors fee to be on the grounds during the 2017 Finals. Defeated. However, any practitioner using the building will be charged before access is granted.
10. Sponsorship update read.
11. Awards update read. Association Jackets have been approved. Becker Buckles are suggested by Awards Committee. Motion that the buckles be ordered within the budget set and that the Bull Riding buckles be delayed in case a champion is not awarded. Carried.
12. Motion that the new rule book be accepted as ready to provide to the members at the AGM. Carried.
13. Suggested to look into cost of providing hard copies to members.
14. A director requested that the Board investigate the “returning of remaining funds” to the committees to see if the process can be quickened. He added there was some confusion with the invoice from the CSPRA. Suggested the form may just need to be explained to committees as it is new. Several directors indicated members still want money and standings sooner.
15. New slogan was suggested: “We don't stop playing because we grow old; we grow old because we stop playing.” All in favor.
16. Meeting adjourned.